

erine Beale, Holland; Bessie Watts, Clifford; Glendora Harshman, Hagerstown, Md.; Dorothea Nevils, Hopewell, Marybelle Higgins, Hopewell; Louise Faulconer, Unionville; Ruth McNeil, Fishersville; Mary Hale, Spring Valley.

Miss Frances Houck, assisted by the college Glee Club, appeared in a recital recently. The program included such favorites as April, Calm as the Night, Marianina, Slumber Song, and Cloud Shadows.

The college Glee Club recently toured Southwest Virginia, appearing in four cities and broadcasting from Roanoke. The club also acted as hostess to the Washington and Lee Glee Club in a joint concert here.

The Glee Clubs of Bridgewater College and Harrisonburg exchanged concerts during April, Bridgewater appearing here the sixth and Harrisonburg going there the tenth. Mr. Nelson Huffman and Miss Edna Shaeffer directed.

Pagliacci, by Leoncavallo, produced as a screened opera by the San Carlo Opera Company, was shown in Wilson Hall recently. The opera had appeared here during the summer session.

Hilda Hisey, of Edinburg, represented Harrisonburg as princess at the eleventh annual Apple Blossom festival held in Winchester. The college glee club also attended.

Presenting a four-act play of their own composition, the second-grade pupils of the Main Street school gave an assembly program at the college. They composed the songs that were included in the play.

The ninth-grade history classes of the Harrisonburg High School presented an assembly program at the college. The theme was "the uselessness of war," and the program consisted of two dramatizations and several brief talks.

The inter-class golf tournament will be held some time in May, according to Mike Buie, of Lake City, Florida, sports leader. Forty students are out for practice. The class sports leaders are: seniors, Lois Bishop, Norfolk; juniors, Mittie Chapman, Smithfield; sophomores, Janie Miner, Meridian, Miss.; freshmen, Helen Moore, Norfolk.

The junior class formally received the privilege of wearing the senior rings at the ring ceremonial conducted by the officers of the senior class.

The last meeting of 1933-34 for the revision of the Virginia curriculum was held at the college April 17. The work done during this year was evaluated.

Dr. Charles E. Conrad, of Harrisonburg, addressed the college assembly recently on advances in medicine. "We are directing our efforts toward preventive rather than curative medicine," he stated.

"The World Changes," starring Paul Muni, was shown at the college recently.

ALUMNAE NEWS

Virginia Alese Burgess, of Fork Union, Va., was married to Mr. Charles Remiro Baldwin, of Wyoming, Pa., on April 21, in Philadelphia, Pa. After her graduation from Harrisonburg, Mrs. Burgess graduated from the Maryland Institute of Arts in Baltimore. Mr. and Mrs. Burgess will reside in Jamaica, L. I., New York.

The engagement of Miss Virginia Maude Hughes, of Arvon, to Mr. Grant Rogers, of Greenwood, has been announced. Since her graduation Miss Hughes has taught in Albemarle County and at present is a member of the faculty at Greenwood High School. Mr. Rogers is engaged in business at Greenwood. The marriage will take place in June.

Another June marriage is that of Miss Elizabeth Moore, of Norfolk, to Mr. Harry Elva, of Newport News. Miss Moore is of the class of 1932 and at present is doing substitute teaching in the Norfolk schools.

Helen N. Leitch, of the class of '24, is librarian of the Charles Pinckney Jones Memorial Library in Covington. She finds her work both enjoyable and interesting.

The Harrisonburg Chapter of the Alumnae Association gave a bridge party in Alumnae Hall on April 27. The proceeds from the bridge party went towards its scholarship fund. During the past year the chapter has supported a student in college.

Zelia E. Wisman is teaching dietetics and child care in Alleghany High School at Cumberland, Md. She has recently served as chairman of a group of teachers who are constructing an objective test based on the junior high school course of study in home-making education.

FINALS

Final exercises will be concluded this year on Monday night, rather than Tuesday morning, as in recent years. The complete program, as arranged, is as follows:

FRIDAY, JUNE 8

8:30 P. M.—Recital by Departments of Music and Expression, Wilson Hall.

SATURDAY, JUNE 9

9:30 A. M.—Annual Meeting, Alumnae Association, Alumnae Hall.

1:00 P. M.—Alumnae Luncheon, Harrison Hall.

3:00 P. M.—Sound Motion Pictures, Wilson Hall.

8:30 P. M.—Play by Graduating Classes—"Alice Sit-by-the-Fire," by J. M. Barrie, Wilson Hall. (Admission charge.)

SUNDAY, JUNE 10

11:00 A. M.—Commencement Service Sermon, Rev. Ernest Trice Thompson, D. D., John Q. Dickinson Professor Church History and Church Polity, Union Theological Seminary, Richmond, Virginia, Wilson Hall.

8:00 P. M.—Y. W. C. A. Service—Guest Speaker, Dr. Thompson, Wilson Hall.

MONDAY, JUNE 11

11:00 A. M.—Class Day Exercises, Wilson Hall.

3:00 P. M.—Sound Motion Pictures, Wilson Hall.

4:30-5:30 P. M.—Informal Reception to Alumnae and Guests by the Faculty, Alumnae Hall.

8:30 P. M.—Final Exercises, Wilson Hall.

Address to the Graduating Classes, Samuel Chiles Mitchell, Ph. D., Professor of History and Political Science, University of Richmond, Richmond, Virginia.

Delivery of Diplomas, President Samuel P. Duke.

OUR CONTRIBUTORS

LESLIE D. KLINE, superintendent of schools of Frederick county, is an earnest and courageous student of contemporary affairs.

SIDONIE M. GRUENBERG is director of the Child Study Association of America, on the advisory board of The Parents' Magazine and the Junior Literary Guild, author of Your Child Today and Tomorrow.

SUE PORTER HEATWOLE, whose husband, Dr. C. J. Heatwole, was professor of education in Harrisonburg from 1909 to 1917, and is now secretary of the Virginia Educational Association and editor of the Virginia Journal of Education, is living in Richmond, Virginia.

A FOOD

AND AN

ENERGY BUILDER

IMPERIAL

THE CREAM of all ICE CREAMS

Manufactured in Harrisonburg, Va.

and sold by all leading Ice Cream dealers throughout the

Shenandoah Valley